

Revathi dance

Indische Tanzakademie München

May 19th:
Revathi Dance Academy is presenting Bharatanatyam Workshops in Munich
with Shyamala Surendran from Kerala, India

Bharatanatyam is one of the most popular practiced classical dance styles of India, with sculptural evidence dating back nearly 3000 years. A highly spiritual and dedicatory dance form, Bharatanatyam's roots go back to the Hindu temples of Tamil Nadu, in South India.

Shyamala Surendran is coming to Europe. A founder of Dharani School in Cochin, Kerala. She is offering Workshops in Bharatanatyam for all Levels.

Introduction to basic technic footwork, (adavus) handgestures, (mudras) expressions, (Abhinaya) and also learn a new choreography.

Time: 11am to 12.30 am introduction / technick all levels

13.30am to 17.30 am choreography from intermediate

Place: Georgen str.38 Munich.

Registration and more Information: hbrigggi@yahoo.de or 017622286036